PARKER ASSAILS SULZER, RIDDLES MARSHALL'S SPEECH DEMANDING AN ACQUITTAL

Governor's Lawyer Declares No Proof of Bribery, Perjury or Larceny Was Produced.

PRaises HIS RECORD.

Insists That Governor Is Not Subject to Impeachment for Unofficial Acts.

By Samuel M. Williams. (Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)

ALBANY, Oct. 9.—Two great leaders of the American Bar pleaded for and against Gov. Sulzer in the impeachment court to-day. Louis Marshall opened the debate with a masterly argument based on the supremacy of the law as against political passion and prejudice.

He spoke for nearly five hours, pleading that the office of Governor be safeguarded even if its occupant was not—that the dignity of the State and the integrity of republican form of government be sustained inviolate from partisan attack.

Mr. Marshall finished his address at 10 minutes before 3 o'clock and was followed by Alton B. Parker for the prosecution.

"There has been no answer," said Judge Parker, "to any of the material evidence put in by the managers. If there is an answer in existence the respondent has not put in any evidence of it, hence we must depend upon the testimony adduced by the Board of Managers." Judge Parker then referred to the awakening of the people, beginning with the Hughes insurance investigation against the corrupting influence of corporation contributions in political campaigns.

PARKER DISCUSSES THE CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS.

Judge Parker then took up the contributions to Sulzer during the campaign. He cited the Jacob H. Schiff check for $2,500.

"Mr. Schiff," he said, "is a man of large affairs. It was somewhat unusual for a candidate for Governor to call on him. He was quick to ask, 'What can I do for you?' and Mr. Sulzer asked for a contribution to his campaign fund, and when tendered $2,500 he inquired, 'Is that all?' We have shown that at least $2,500 more than was counted for in his sworn statement. Have they answered or denied any one of these contributions? No. They put on the stand Louis A. Starobsky, upon whom has been placed the only attempt of defense that has been offered."

"There has been an attempt," said Judge Parker, "to create an atmosphere that William Sulzer is a man completely blank so far as dollars and cents are concerned, but the proceedings of this tribunal disclose that he is very thrifty indeed. He must have chuckled over the wisdom of his pupil, Starobsky, when he looked over the list and did not find therein the record of checks from the great interests of New York. He must have thought, what a clever boy that is, and said to himself, 'How glad I am that he did not put the contributions of Ryan, of Schiff, of Meany and of Morgan down!' The boy's master, William Sulzer, knew it was a lie."

Mr. Parker turned on Sulzer, depicting his grasping for cash wherever he could get it. He repeated twice and again the remark to Ryan, "Tell your father I am the same old Bill."

"The suggestion of that phrase was plain," declared Parker. "It meant that he would continue to be servicable and friendly."

Referring to the statement of recollections and expenditures, Mr. Parker said:

"William Sulzer violated the law willfully and he did it with full knowledge of the offense and the penalties."

LOAN SHARK KING SENTENCED TO SIX MONTHS IN PRISON

Daniel H. Tolman Denounced by Justice Zeller as Most Contemptible of Usurers.

EXTORTED $15 FOR $10.

A Warning to All of His Kind, Magistrate Declares From the Bench.

Daniel H. Tolman, "King of the Loan Sharks," was convicted to-day in the Court of Special Sessions of usury and sentenced to serve six months in the penitentiary. His counsel, Lewis Carruthers, gave notice of intention to appeal, but pending the appeal Tolman was sent to the Tombs to await transfer to Blackwell's Island.

This is the first time Tolman has ever been convicted in a court in this city, although many prosecutions have been launched against him. Recently he was convicted in New Jersey, fined, and warned to leave the State. On previous occasions Tolman has escaped conviction because the prosecution was unable to connect him personally with usurious loans.

To-day the personal connection was established through the testimony of Carl Schock of No. 30 East Fourteenth street.

Schock swore that he went to Tolman's main office at No. 108 Fulton street on Jan. 27 and asked for a loan of $10. He presented a note with an endorser. A clerk said the note would be investigated. When Schock called again, he said, he met Tolman, who said he would accept the note because the endorser would not guarantee to pay it in case Schock defaulted.

Schock said he got another endorser and called again. This time he met a clerk who accepted the note and gave him $10. He paid $12.50 a week for twelve weeks—a total of $15—in satisfaction of the loan. The interest amounted to 50 per cent of the principal.

Tolman, clad entirely in black and wearing a white cravat, which combination gave him a ministerial appearance, took the stand in his own defense. He admitted that the loan was made to Schock, but said it was only part in it was to advise a woman clerk, Mary Clark, not to accept a note the endorser of which would not guarantee to pay it.

Justice Zeller, Parker and Russell believed Schock and found Tolman guilty. Mr. Carruthers moved for an arrest of judgment.

"If we give you an arrest of judgment," said Justice Zeller, "we'll send the defendant to the Tombs for a week."

Mr. Carruthers was non-plussed. After consultation with his client he said he believed it would be better to take the sentence right there.

"You are the most contemptible usurer in your unspeakable business," said Justice Zeller to Tolman in imposing sentence. To exact $15 from a poor man for a $10 loan for twelve weeks is akin to squeezing out blood money. The poor must be protected from such sharks as you and we trust that your sentence will be notice to you and all your kind that the courts have found a way to put a stop to your usury."

WILSON TO EXPLODE BLAST LETTING FREE PANAMA CANAL WATERS

Touching Button in White House, Will Set Off 40 Tons of Dynamite on Isthmus.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—President Wilson will press a button at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon which will make a connection that will ignite the blast blowing up the Gamboa dike in the Panama Canal and remove the last obstruction in Culebra Cut. Members of the Cabinet and Congressmen will be present.

Arrangements for this, the final act in the construction of the Canal, were announced here to-day. The temporary dam which is to be destroyed will let water into the Culebra Cut.

PANAMA, Oct. 9.—Upon the request of President Woodrow Wilson the hour when the Gamboa dike, which now separates the waters of Gatun Lake from the Culebra Cut, will be blown up by dynamite to-morrow, has been changed from 3 o'clock in the morning to 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The President of the United States at that hour will, through the medium of the telegraph and cable lines, throw a switch here which will touch off the blast intended to destroy the dike.

The blast will be the largest ever attempted in work on the Panama Canal. More than 1,000 holes have been drilled in the dike and each hole contains from 50 to 100 pounds of dynamite, amounting in the aggregate to forty tons.

TROLLEY CARS HELD UP. Collapse of Loaded Truck Delays Bronx Service Two Hours. Trolley traffic in Third avenue, the Bronx, was tied up for two hours this morning when a truck, carrying a twenty-four-ton steel girder, broke down on the tracks at One Hundred and Sixty-first street. The truck, drawn by eight horses, was delivering the girder to the Weissinger Amusement Company, which is erecting a theatre in Boston Road, between One Hundred and Sixty-seventh and One Hundred and Sixty-eighth streets.

The girder, to be used as the proscenium arch, stretched fifty-three feet over and upward, one mile—Homerest, 88 (Davies), 5 to 1; 2 to 1 and even first; Beach Sand, 10 (Oxley), 12 to 1; 5 to 1 and 2 to 1; second, Beach, 10 (Oxley), 12 to 1; 5 to 1 and 2 to 1; third, Time, 1:43. ## Game's Features at a Glance.

Crandall Schang of the Athletics did the Baker stunt in the eighth, hitting Crandall for a homer.

Oldring nicked Tesreau for the first single of the game in the opening inning. Collins and Baker followed in order with singles, Oldring coming home with the first run.

McLean was Tesreau's first strike-out victim, but McLean dropped the ball and had to throw him out at first.

Fletcher's wild throw over Merkle's head of Strunk's roller let both Collins and Baker tally, thus giving the Athletics a good start of three runs in their first attempt.

Kerry Doyle got the Giants' first hit—a single that bounded off Bush's wrist. After Bush hit Fletcher Burns had a chance to clean up, but lined right into Collins's hands and Doyle was doubled up.

Bush showed signs of wildness in the opening inning for the Giants. Following the double steal of Collins and Baker in the first Oldring stole cleanly on McLean in the second scored Murphy and Oldring and seemed to sew up the game.

Bush seemed to get his nerve back in the Giants' half of the second and Shaffer, Murray and McLean tapped out in order.

Up to the third inning Collins seemed to be the block in the Giants' path, catching two-line drives that had started like long hits.

Tesreau seemed to have Schang's number. He struck him out for the second time in the fourth.

Fletcher gets the credit of stealing the first base for the Giants during the series, when he pilfered second in the fourth inning.

Murray worked Bush for the first free base of the game in the fifth. After stealing and going to third on Schang's bad throw, "Red Jack" tallied the Giants' first run on McLean's single past Baker.

Cooper got into the game in the fifth, running for McLean, and promptly stole second on Schang.

Fletcher got a "walk" from Bush in the sixth. Up to this stage he had reached first every time up.

In the last of the seventh Wiltse went in to run for Merkle after the latter got a base on balls.
